	daily and study routines; learning activities in the classroom; cardinal numbers 100-500; ordinal numbers 1-50". • a) Students make connections with the current content by activating their pre-existing knowledge and experiences that they have recalled in the listening (to)/watching/reading sections previously.
ENG.6.2.S2	Students can use the model/example for producing verbal content about the current content on "classroom life with daily and study routines; learning activities in the classroom; cardinal numbers 100-500; ordinal numbers 1-50". • a) Students listen (to)/watch/read the model/example for the current content with the help of audio/visual/ written elements.
ENG.6.2.S3	Students can organise a new verbal content on "classroom life with daily and study routines; learning activities in the classroom; cardinal numbers 100-500; ordinal numbers 1-50" by speaking accurately, efficiently, and authentically. • a) Students recognise what form and type of content is expected and assigned for prepared/ unprepared speaking situations based on audio/visual/written content as provided in the model/example. • b) Students organise the content for prepared/unprepared speaking situations in an appropriate and accurate way as they have heard/seen/read in the model/example. • c) Students develop a draft for prepared/unprepared speaking situations, appropriate to the age and language level as presented in the model/sample content. • d) Students organise supplementary audio/visual/written materials for prepared/or unprepared speaking situations, appropriate to age and language level, as provided in the model/sample content. • e) Students organise the information about the current content to be presented for prepared/or unprepared speaking situations in an appropriate way as required.
ENG.6.2.S4	Students can construct a new verbal content on "classroom life with daily and study routines; learning activities in the classroom; cardinal numbers 100-500; ordinal numbers 1-50" by speaking accurately, efficiently, and authentically. • a) Students use target pronunciation, vocabulary, language chunks, and forms of discourse related to the current content effectively by selecting them accurately and appropriately for prepared/unprepared speaking situations. • b) Students present individually prepared content in an accurate and efficient way as presented in the model/ example for prepared speaking situations clearly, efficiently, and appropriately. • c) Students present individually prepared information in an accurate and efficient way as presented in the model/ example for unprepared speaking situations. • d) Students express the message about the current content clearly to the reader by using all supplementary elements and body language in an appropriate and accurate way in context for prepared and/or unprepared speaking situations.
ENG.6.2.S5	Students can reorganise (reconstruct) and use information about the "classroom life with daily and study routines; learning activities in the classroom; cardinal numbers 100-500; ordinal numbers 1-50" to communicate with other people. • a) Students use the information presented in the current content by reorganising it appropriately, efficiently, individually, and verbally in different contexts. • b) Students engage in appropriate and efficient verbal communication by sharing the reconstructed meaningful information about the current content with others.
ENG.6.2.S6	Students can convey their knowledge, experiences, thoughts, and feelings related to the speaking-expression process about the current content, "classroom life with daily and study routines; learning activities in the classroom; cardinal numbers 100-500; ordinal numbers 1-50" to communicate with other people in relation to themselves or others, both individually and/or with others. • a) Students convey individually the knowledge, experiences, thoughts, and feelings examined carefully in relation to the current speaking-expression content and process. • b) Students share the knowledge, experiences, thoughts, and feelings examined carefully in relation to the speaking-expression process about the current content with others.

ÖLÇME VE DEĞERLENDİRME

EVALUATION FOR THE SKILLS AND THE CONTENT:
PERFORMANCE ASSIGNMENT: Students will prepare a game about numbers focusing on using cardinal numbers (100-500) and ordinal numbers (1-50). They will design a game, such as a board game, card game, or quiz, where players solve problems or answer questions about these numbers. They will also place questions about school routines and learning activities to be answered in an order with given numbers. They will write simple rules for their games and create challenges related to classroom life, such as arranging items in order or counting objects. They will present their games to classmates, explain how to play, and let others try them. The project should include colourful designs, creative questions, and clear instructions. The assignment will be evaluated by using a rubric scheme, a rating scale, and/or a marking scheme.
