ÖLÇME VE DEĞERLENDİRME

PERFORMANCE ASSIGNMENT: Students will write a short dialogue between two friends who discuss the effects of social media on their health. One friend will talk about the advantages of social media such as learning new things and staying connected, while the other will mention disadvantages, such as spending too much time on a screen. They will also suggest ways to stay healthy. Students will practice their dialogue and then perform it in front of the class, using simple sentences and expressive acting. Then they will write a report in pairs on pros and cons of social media related to health. The assignment will be evaluated by using a rubric scheme, a rating scale, and/or a marking scheme.
